Privacy Policy for Wikipedia User Contributions Scraper

Last updated: 11/12/2024

Introduction

This extension, Wikipedia User Contributions Scraper, is designed to extract user contribution data from Wikipedia history pages and generate a downloadable file for personal use. We respect your privacy and are committed to being transparent about how our extension works.

What Data Does This Extension Collect?

This extension does not collect, store, or transmit any personal or sensitive user data. All data processing happens locally on your device and is not shared with any external servers or third parties.

Permissions

The permissions requested by this extension (activeTab, scripting, and downloads) are solely for the purpose of enabling its functionality:

- activeTab: To access the content of the currently active Wikipedia tab.

- scripting: To execute scripts that extract data from the page.

- downloads: To enable the download of a CSV file generated from the scraped data.

Third-Party Services

This extension does not use any third-party services or analytics.

Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any updates will be posted along with the extension update.
